Simone Bridges

Simone Bridges is an award winning celebrity chef, author, and speaker. She is celebrated for her unique twist on traditional desserts and her work in increasing science, technology, reading, engineering, arts, and mathematics (STREAM) education using culinary concepts. She teaches STREAM concepts through her fun-filled, hands-on cooking classes. Simone founded Goddess Food Factory in 2017 and her delicious pastries have received raving reviews by celebrities and master chefs from around the globe. Additionally, she has graced the cover of several magazines for her work in increasing STEM/STREAM education, created the #1 educational baking kit for kids, and speaks to youth everywhere about embracing their inner super powers. Simone continues to empower and grow youth STREAM entrepreneurs through her nonprofit organization, Simone Bridges Inspires, Inc.

Simone's talents & personality placed her as a special guest on Steve Harvey's talk show, "Steve" and she's one of ten kids who are a part of LeBron James "Always Believe" campaign. She's appeared on several news outlets such as WJXT's Good Morning Jacksonville and River City Live. She's been featured on three Smile of a Child commercials via Triniy Baptist Network and two episodes of Wonderama.

As a STREAM and youth advocate, she serves her community and youth all over the world by providing education on topics such as culinary basics, STREAM, and kidpreneurship. Simone shares her passions with others through her non-profit organization, Simone Bridges Inspires, Inc. She continues to be the change she wants to see in the world by spreading positivity and creating an impact wherever she goes.
